TO DARKEN HAIR

Sage Tea and Sulphur Turns Gray, Faded Hair Dark and Glossy.

Almost every one knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and luster to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is mussy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." You will get a large bottle for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this old, famous recipe because no one can famous recipe, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.

The Cost of Wings By Richard Dehan

> A powerful story of love and aviation. It portrays the terrors of the aviator's wife. She lives in constant fear, dreading to answer the postman's ring, or the telephone, or to open a message, and "each newsboy's voice, yelling in the streets, may be the voice of Fate." Read what one woman did about it.

WILLIAMS. In sad but loving remembrance of my dear mother, MARGARET A, WILLIAMS, who died ten years ago today, March 4, 1904.

When earth's last picture is painted, And the inless are twisted and dried; When the oldest culors have faded, And the youngest critic has died, We shall rest, and faith, we shall need it—the down for an acon or two.

Till the Master of all good weekmen Shall set us to work mew.
